DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claim 19 is directed towards printed matter. A mere arrangement of printed matter, though seemingly a "manufacture," is rejected as not being within the statutory classes. See In re Miller, 418 F.2d 1392, 164 USPQ 46 (CCPA 1969); Ex parte Gwinn, 112 USPQ 439 (Bd. App. 1955); and In re Jones, 373 F.2d 1007, 153 USPQ 77 (CCPA 1967). See MPEP 706.03(a) [R-2] I A.

The claim does not "define either new features of structure or new relations of printed matter to structure, or both" and "substance or language of that which is printed may not constitute patentable subject matter". "Where the sole distinction set out in the claims over the prior art is in the printed matter, there being no new feature of physical structure and no new relation of printed matter to physical structure, such claims may not be allowed, it is only where the claims define either new features of structure or new relations of printed matter to structure, or both, which new features or new relations give rise to some new and useful function or effect or result that claims may be properly allowed. Ex Parte Gwinn.

"The mere arrangement of printed matter on a sheet or sheets of paper does not constitute patentable subject matter". In re Russel, 18 C.C.P.A. (Patents) 1184, 48, F.2d 668,9 USPQ 181, and In re Reeves, 20 C.C.P.A. (Patents) 767,62 F.2d 199, 16 USPQ 110.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 12-18, 20 and 21 are allowed.

Applicant's arguments, filed 23 December 2005, with respect to claims 12-18, 20 and 21 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The prior art rejection of claims 12-18, 20 and 21 has been withdrawn.
